STUDY SKILLS:

ANALYSIS OF YOUR STUDY ENVIRONMENT

The purpose of this inventory is to help you evaluate the three places you study most frequently. Begin by identifying these three locations in the blanks below. List them in the order in which you use them most frequently. Then answer each question according to whether the statement is mostly true or mostly false about each of the three places you have identified. Put a T in the box if it is mostly true and a F in the box if it is mostly false.

DI ACE B.

ACE A:	PLACE B:	PLACE C:
		PLACE A	PLACE B	PLACE C
There are few distractions, such as phone, computer, or TV, in this location.
Other people rarely interrupt me when I study in this location.
This is a quiet location, with almost no interruptions from phones ringing, people talking or music playing.
I take a limited num	ber of breaks when I study in this environment.
I study here regular	ly during the week.
I tend to keep my b	reaks short when I study in this location.
I rarely talk with peo	ople when I study here.
The temperature in this place is very comfortable for studying most of the time.
The chair in this pla	ce is very conducive to studying.
The desk/table in the	nis place is very conducive to studying.
The lighting in this	place is very conducive to studying.
There are few thing unrelated to studying	s in this location that are ng or school work.
TOTAL: ADD UP TO	HE NUMBER OF T'S IN EACH COLUMN.

When you have answered all 12 questions, review each column to calculate the number of "True" responses you made for each of the three places where you study most frequently. The place with the highest total may provide the best environment for studying. Repeat this for all the study areas you use or are considering using.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

DI ACE C.