Important Information
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> As required by IGP #49, multi-section general education courses and 1000/2000 introductory courses have a common text. The common text for these courses is adopted by recommendation of faculty in academic departments and with approval of the Chairperson. In addition, the Department Chairperson's signature confirms that the textbook complies with IGP #49. In a multiple section course, as defined by the IGP, the text is a departmentally approved common text for general education and/or introductory courses. Textbook Rental Service does not purchase books for workshops, special courses, Independent Study, Internship, Research or Thesis courses. Textbook Rental Service will not issue textbooks for instructional use. It is the responsibility of the Instructor or Department to order all desk copies. If additional information is needed, please contact Textbook Rental Service.
